Ebola, A New Rise (Short Story): What awaits human kind in its next evolutionary step. Arthur Gonzalez

A very different take on what could happen with the Dallas Ebola Outbreak and the future of the entire human race. This is the story of 2 people that live regular everyday lives coming from different paths of life. Their future collide to define one of the possible futures of our species.

Rebecca and Jarred find each other in the midst of very complicated conditions with Ebola getting out of control and taking over the entire planet, the outbreak takes humanity to the brink of insanity until evolution finally kicks in. Values break down to the bare survival instinct while they both share a tale of hardships and love that takes human interaction to the next level.
