When the life you know is over, can you go home to start again? Return to Cradle Lake tells the heartwarming and emotional journey of Grace Peyton who returns to Kinsey Falls, Ohio, after two decades to care for her estranged husband who has been in an automobile accident. Remaining by the bedside of the man who betrayed her, Grace confronts an uncertain future and a painful past. But it is when she comes face to face with Cal Westover, the man who broke her heart years ago, that Grace realizes her first love never died and old sins must be forgiven – even her own. Can she follow her heart or will the secret she never told Cal destroy her chance for happiness? A colorful cast of secondary characters will bring a smile to your face and a warmth to your heart. Award-winning author, Cynthia Thomason, has written a full-length story of faith, family, and Friday night football that will make you believe in second chances and the truth that home is where your heart leads you.
