Poor Man's Lotto Memoirs of A Black Firefighter in America Ernest Richardson

Poor Man's Lotto is an extraordinary journey of a little boy's perseverance through a troubled life he did not create but was born into. It's a story of a young boy who wanted nothing more than to be a Fireman since the age of six or seven. Poor Man's Lotto epitomizes the theme of "Yes We Can." It is a unique story about a life that no child should ever have to live. However, the beauty of this story is that it brings to light that no matter what you go through, You Can Make It! The Author's message to all young people is Yes You Can! Don't ever stop believing in yourself even when everyone around you is saying, No You Can't.
