Masked & Miserable: A Novella of the Sacred Hearts MC (Book 3.5) A.J. Downey He's Masked...

Squick has been a longtime fixture of the Sacred Hearts MC. His boss, Trigger, is their Sergeant at Arms after all. It took a while for him to put together a bike to become an official hangaround then prospect, and he was pretty thrilled that his other boss, Zander, took the plunge with him. Still, Squick is hiding something big that could test friendships and destroy relationships. The mask is becoming increasingly difficult for him to wear.

...and Miserable.

Of course, now that he is on the very cusp of patching in, that's when Aaron walks into his life. Suddenly it's do or die... Come out to the club and lose the brotherhood and the only sense of true family he has ever known, or don't and lose them anyway when they find out about Aaron? Squick doesn't see a third option, and the deeper he gets into his situation, the more his misery compounds.

Just what will he do?
