There is another layer to the world. A hidden layer where you can really give the moon to the one that you love, where you can visit other people in their dreams and find the person who is writing your life story. A world within a world, where looking deep into the eyes of your lover can change history, where you can hire a detective to find inspiration... "Giving the Moon" is a book of short stories on the thin line between life and dream, between reality and fiction, between the heart and the brain.
