The Long River is a pastoral poetic literature that parallels with Remote City. In The Long River, the sudden rise of the ""New Life Movement"" disturbed the once peaceful life of people living in the small town Lvjiaping near the river Chenhe. The old sailor Man Man felt worried about the future condition while the young girl Yao Yao, the daughter of the orangery owner kind of expected to the new changes in life. The fresh Nature, the innocent young girl and the harmonious atmosphere in the pastoral life make the story bright and beautiful. However, the unpredictable circumstances leaves both the author and readers unsolvable upsets and worries.
