Try to resist being refreshed, recharged, and encouraged by this book. Try to resist sharing it with every new mom you know. Try to resist being reassured that you are the best mom for your children; that you are not alone; and that you will succeed one stage at a time. Author and mom, Robin Kramer, understands that in the midst of the messiness and upheaval inherent to caring for children, you desperately want to have everything figured out. She reassures you that you will be able to adapt to each new parenting situation as it comes. The trick is to enjoy your time as a mom by simply loving your kids. Candid, humorous, and touching, THEN I BECAME A MOTHER is an uplifting read for moms in all stages of motherhood. As one reviewer writes: "If you are an expectant mother, you should read it and take notes. If you are a new mother, you should read it and take comfort. If you are a 'seasoned' mother, you should read it, take a walk down memory lane and then, take action to help other mothers you encounter." Every mother deserves to enjoy, not merely to endure, those brief years when she gets to be "Mommy." That's why Byrne Publishing LLC has developed: www.mommyforamoment.com There you will find FREE kids activities and FREE group discussion guides based on Then I Became a Mother. The discussion guides pull lots of uplifting quotes and samples from the book and are a great way to get together with other moms to remember: Motherhood lasts a lifetime, but you're only "mommy" for a moment.
