Rei had gained much throughout her travels, but fear still has a grip.

Reeling from their adventure on Ieteata, caution seems the best course. Too much is not understood, far too much to risk. Even in a state of caution the crew of the Kathya can't just sit and wait. After all, they're still thieves, there's credits to earn, and there's more than one type of grab.

It's a slight respite from Rei's new reality, but no escape lasts forever. Grandma's prophecies are growing more urgent and frequent in nature. Two fronts are about to collide, and the only way to their next Riaten treasure is hope and flying near the storm.
