The Kaleidoscope Hilary Helton

Elizabeth Alden has been lying to herself since her parents died, leaving her responsible for the care of her chronically ill younger sister. But when her charismatic lover reveals that he is a telepathic immortal from an alternate reality, she is forced to confront the truth - that she is exhausted by her work as a commercial photographer, and longing to escape the demands of her sister's illness. Nigel is a force of nature - wicked, charming, and implacable. But even Nigel's relentless pursuit, and the utopia he is offering, fail to persuade Elizabeth to abandon her beloved sister and follow him. Unable to leave Elizabeth behind, Nigel makes a desperate decision that lands them in a dangerous world where the mind is the only weapon, and the only defense. Nigel has stolen Elizabeth's entire world - now, he is all she has left. For Elizabeth, there's no place to hide. If she cannot learn to forgive Nigel's betrayal and live with his ceaseless honesty, Elizabeth risks losing her sanity - and her life.
