Renee has spent her entire life in a small fishing town, tied to her family. When her daughter goes away to NYU Renee sees her chance to leave this life behind. She follows her daughter to college and sets out to start her own adventures and finish her teaching degree under the guise of watching out for her daughter in the big city.

After she sets her daughter up in her dorm room, she finally gets to her new apartment. She struggles with whether leaving her sleepy little fishing town was a good idea. She meets her handsome next door neighbor, a younger playboy by the name of Jensen.

Will Jensen help her realize her dreams or will this relationship end before it even begins?
