"A delightful adventure... especially recommended as a gift for those who treasure their furry canine friends."

-- Midwest Book Review

Welcome to the strange and wonderful world of Shipsfeather, Ohio, where an ancient race of dog-shifters has been charged with curating the knowledge of the world, and with protecting civilization's libraries from the machinations of evil, book burning werewolves. For years a curse has imprisoned the dog-shifters in the basement of the Shipsfeather library--where they have made the best of things with a gym, a spa, a Starbarks, and, of course, their wildly successful internet company, Zoogole--but now, thanks to librarian Liberty Cutter and her zany staff, they may actually have a chance to break free again. If only they can convince her to believe in magic...

THE SHAPESHIFTERS' LIBRARY: RELEASED is the first in a charming new series that will have dog lovers and book lovers alike howling out loud with delight. With a generous sprinkling of "Dewey-speak" and "dog-speak", clever literary references and some of the most unforgettable canine characters since "Lady and the Tramp", Amber Polo takes you into a world you will never want to leave. The Shapeshifters' Library series is destined to be a classic.
