Fast paced with a gripping story, Under the Mango Tree is a page-turner from beginning to end. It has its origins with Natalie Woodson, a rich and beautiful but impossibly spoiled woman, and a handsome and carefree pilot, Derek Thomas, whom she has chartered to fly her from New York City to San Jose, Costa Rica. Incurring catastrophic phenomena en route beyond their control, they soon find themselves isolated in a hostile land. What begins as a simple exercise in survival soon develops into a daily fight for existence against almost insurmountable odds. Confronted with their mutual animus toward each other, they soon realize that their salvation and only way out is to unit in purpose and in spirit. In this thrilling spellbinder, through trial and tribulation, they both discover the most meaningful and lasting human experience.
