Leave The Light On is the story of thirty-one year old Blair Evans, a forensic psychologist with the FBI, whose dark past comes to haunt her when she returns to her hometown of Rockland, Maine, following the death of her beloved grandfather. Shrouded in mystery are the events that took place on graduation night thirteen years ago, from which Blair vowed never to return home. Just as Blair is wrapping things up, ready to leave Rockland for good, she learns that a young woman has been murdered on Rockland's rocky shore. However, assisting law enforcement turns out to be the least of Blair's problems. The deeper she dives into the investigation, the more she becomes the target for the murderer. Soon it's a race against time for Blair to catch the Rockland killer before she becomes the latest victim.
