Genius is a universal thing-not just for a few but for everyone! The Genius Code teaches you that genius is your birthright and the birthright of everyone. By learning to unleash your "creative genius" at will, you will discover true personal power-accessing at will the divine powers inherent within you. By trusting and obeying your voices of inspiration and intuition, the seats of divine wisdom within you-you will meet with a prosperity and abundance in your life that will transcend your wildest dreams and desires. Unlike many popular self-help books that promise much and deliver little, The Genius Code will unlock a creative power within you that will enable you to reach the ultimate dream-the ability to manifest at will. Learn and master these twelve steps of genius-twelve steps between a life of mediocrity and a destiny of genius-between a life of lack and one of limitless abundance. The distance between creative genius and average thinking are simply matters of thinking and perception. People of genius rely upon their "inner-worlds" of inspiration and intuition for guidance and validation, while average people rely upon their external worlds for approval and validation. Average people trust the limited world of the visible-people of genius trust the limitless world of the invisible!
