A collection of stories written by acclaimed science fiction author, Raymond Zinke Gallun. Gallun was among the stalwart group of early sci-fi pulp writers who popularized the genre.

In this volume:

Story One: Asteroid of Fear - A classical farwest tale translated into space adventure! All space was electrified as that harsh challenge rang out ... but John Endlich hesitated. For he saw beyond his own murder—saw the horror and destruction his death would unleash—and knew he dared not fight back!

Story Two: Stamped Caution - It's a funny thing, but most monsters seem to be of the opinion that it's men who are the monsters. You know, they have a point...

Story Three: The Eternal Wall - A scream of brakes, the splash into icy waters, a long descent into alkaline depths ... it was death. But Ned Vince lived again--a million years later!

These are the original and unabridged versions of these classic pulp tales.

A must-have for fans of classic sci-fi!
