Heads or Tails? Cain Towers

A young man with a secret fetish for frequenting station restrooms enjoys a life changing start to his day. Strangely addicted to the decade of attention from the older patrons, one particular older man piques his interest like no other. A most tempting proposition is put to him in an intriguing game of chance. Could this be the one defining moment that finally severs him from his overbearing mother's apron strings?

Heads or Tails is possibly the hottest tale yet from Cain Towers featuring the chemistry between an older and younger man. Not for the faint of heart, Head or Tails will blow more than your mind as you experience the passion shared between these two men. It is a story of over 6.5 thousand words written with that exact same passion.

"He helps me struggle out of the confined space and with us both still crouched down on the floor, I unbutton his shirt. I want to feel his skin against mine. I want to get as close to him as is possible. I want to get inside him... His hands are clenched against the door and I can see the veins pulsating. He stops for breath and I pull him close again. He could not be any closer and yet I want him closer still. I hold him tight against me, one hand on his chest and the other down on his thigh. So gently do I place my lips to his neck that not even a butterfly could land with such sweet and gentle grace".
