Most of Suzy Paradise's dreams died along with her son over twenty years ago.

One thing has re-ignited her passion for living - running her own café, which specializes in home-baked donuts. For Suzy, this is a long-cherished dream come true. Her business is starting to flounder when Donuts-A-Million, a giant chain, opens across the street from her. Her unexpected attraction to Coen Walsh, a regular customer at her café, creates more tension when she learns of his affiliation with her competitor. Café Paradise is about Suzy's fight to save her business in spite of the odds. Sometimes, she realizes, dreams have an expiration date and it takes just as much courage to let them go.

Along the way, she must re-define the meaning of work, family and romance so she can find her own formula for happiness.
