The Appearance and Construction of Chinas Revolution- Study of and Its Derivative Versions (Chinese Edition) Yao Dan

According to the author, literature or culture will voluntarily follow the national ideology in the background of revolutionary China. Therefore, the works created by by writers must be easy to understand for the ordinary people. However, in practice, many writhers with a profound knowledge will add some elegant elements to their works, which usually reduces their original wideness as farmer writers. On on hand, it reflects the humble status of them in the hierarchy of culture; on the other hand, the unique features of these works make it possible to get all-around interpretations, which is the necessary fact for works to be classical ones.
