In this story, Jimmy makes fun of Peter's attempts to learn letters of the alphabet. Katrina and Peter decide to take part in the fruit and vegetables school photo contest to get even with Jimmy. How can they do it if Jimmy's uncle is a professional photographer? The children find the solution in their backyard as they watch apples grow and learn about deciduous trees. They must face different insects, train a lizard and overcome their greed. After all their efforts, will the photos turn out to be good enough to beat Jimmy? Told in a gentle and humorous way, this story is a great read for all primary school age children and their parents!
