We long for another kingdom, and it is here... People can often feel alone and isolated in our performance-based culture. They have a deep desire to be validated and accepted for who they are. To be loved--to know the love of a God who does not reject them. On A Clear Blue Day provides glimpses into the mystery of finding that kind of connection through the grace and light of Jesus. With lyrical prose and a blend of lush images, Priscilla moves you through the seasons of the year in an unconventional and inspirational style. She takes on such topics as regret, vulnerability, loneliness, intimacy and imperfection. In each essay she weaves a divine thread through the quotidian. This book will increase your hope, make you laugh, nurture your spirit and encourage you not to give up seeking God's kingdom. You are loved. You matter. You can hear His voice.
