TOUCHING -- EVOCATIVE -- HEART-RENDING -- DEADLY. A top-selling debut.

A tiny baby abandoned in the park, in winter. A mummy who desperately wanted her, but who is forced to take drastic actions when she believes she faces more heartbreak. Trying to break free from the torment of her past, Lucy makes a chance encounter with Jamie, in her eyes a heroic, handsome 'has it all' young pilot in the Royal Air Force. She is determined to hang on to Jamie at all costs.

Lucy's too-desperate bid for a 'normal' life will come to wreak terrible consequences. Soon she disappears from the home she shares with her boyfriend, and she's accused of heinous crimes. What really happened? Has Lucy lost her way, or is she as ruthless as they claim?

A top-selling, dark and evocative psychological suspense debut that will make you think about the people you love, how you treat them, and the lengths you might go to, to keep them at your side. Most often paired with books by Claire Mackintosh, Anita Waller, Kathryn Croft and Meg Carter.
