MY NEW LIFE AS A CRIMINAL.: Inducted Into America's Culture of Crime

Surviving life in the inner bowels of the American beast! A realistic fast ride through the well-known but often hushed sweaty and smelly tattooed, fat underbelly of the American social-scape, as articulated by Diego Dolores.

One man's brush with criminal cops and hardened criminals in Whitey Bulger's Winter Hill Gang neighborhoods, motorcycle gangs, hippie druggies, American inner-city gang bangers, teenage whores, grand theft auto, and much more, all American cities are beehives of criminality; a fact many Americans simply try to ignore and live with.

You'll have many more reasons to lock your doors and put up cameras after reading this book.

“The story you are about to write about me is true,” Diego said. “However, the names, dates and places have been changed to protect the guilty. Any resemblance of persons, characters and events to other characters, events or real life persons that I am about to disclose in this account is purely coincidental and meaningless. Since these criminal events and characters occur every day all over America it is highly likely you will see your neighbors, your friends and even yourself in my life story. Don’t presume I know you or talk about you. This is solely my own life’s experience; what I have done and have seen with my own eyes.”

Diego continued, “America proudly calls itself a nation of laws but it is truly a nation of law-breaking criminals. Everyone that I knew back there was a criminal in one way or another and I will venture to say that everyone who will be reading this book is a criminal as well.”
