These books present the world from a woman's point of view - the challenges, the joys, and the hardships. Author Susan Polis Schutz shares her thoughts on being a woman, on being a mother, on being a writer, on being a wife. She struggles to make people understand her through her poetry. Susan believes that many people think reason should guide all that we do, and that feelings are a weakness. With her beautiful way with words, she argues this belief and shares her reasoning instead - she shows us what is accomplished when "feelings" lead the way.
