She Steals His Boyfriend: A BBW Takes Her Due Megan Pony

When Kimberly Voss meets a handsome new man, everything about him seems perfect until she discovers that he has a manipulative and unfaithful boyfriend already. Being a plus sized girl she is used to men appreciating her curves but she didn't expect that he would be seeking more than just a shoulder to cry on. After Brett and his Boyfriend Jason have a nasty fight and the truth comes out, Kimberly finds herself in a position too enticing to pass on. Brett had never been with a woman, and Kimberly was going to need to make sure she makes it completely worth his while, even if it means letting him do the things that would normally make her blush to even think about.

EXCERPT

“Damn, that looks good.”

Kimberly’s head snapped up at the voice. She had been so intent on what she was doing on her phone she hadn’t noticed that someone had walked right up to her table.

It was one of the two men that she had been studying. He was just as tall as she thought from a distance. He was also the one with the bluest eyes she had ever seen, she noticed now that he had come closer.

“Huh?” she said and had to force herself to keep from smacking her head with her palm in frustration. Out of all the things she could have said when a man this handsome walks up to you, she chose to grunt like a cave woman. She knew it was because he had caught her off guard, coupled with the fact that she was tired and not used to the attention of random handsome strangers, but still wished the first word out of her mouth was a little more elegant. Might as well go for it.

“Do you want a bite?” she asked, and instantly regretted it. Even toddlers know you don’t take food from strangers and here she was, offering him some of her already chewed on sandwich like a lunatic. This man, and those blue eyes that looked like they belonged to an ice dragon, was just making her so flustered she was making a dork out of herself.

“Um, I do, but I think I will just order a whole one next time,” he said.

“That would probably be better,” Kimberly said, happy to be off the hook. “It is the Thursday special, every week.”

“I’m Brett,” he said simply, and waited for Kimberly to give her name.

“Kimberly Voss, and it is nice to meet you,” she said. She saw over his shoulder that his companion was paying and talking to the waiter. It looked like he was flirting with the man.

“Are you here every Thursday? For the special?” Brett asked her and she returned her attention to him.

“I’m here almost every day, now that you mention it,” she said.

“My boyfriend and I just moved here, we might see you around,” Brett said, smiling broadly.

“That would be wonderful,” Kimberly said and meant it, it would be nice to meet a new friend and not have to eat alone every night. It took a second for the fact that he had casually mentioned that he had a boyfriend to sink in. She guessed what they always said was true, the good ones were either taken or gay. Well, she hadn't been looking for anything like that to begin with, it was only when she got lost in his eyes did she start having naughty thoughts. Brett's boyfriend came up to join them.

"Hey I want you to meet a new friend of mine," Brett said to him. "Jason, this is Kimberly."

Jason looked her up and down and she felt that he was trying to hold back a sneer. She didn't like being judged on her appearance and had a feeling that was exactly what was happening now.

"Looks like must eat here a lot," he said. It wasn't flat out an insult, but the tone made it obvious he was trying to make it one. She brushed it off.
