Several years have passed since Veronica met Luis at a beachside resort in the Dominican Republic. Just when they imagined life couldn't get any better, everything changes when Luis places his business above their relationship. His misstep, along with other obstacles, causes them both to question their happy existence. Will love be enough to get them through the challenges of life?

"When did I forget what I was living for? Since when does wealth become the yardstick I measure myself by? I used to tell everyone who listened that living well isn't about getting more things--it's about being surrounded by family. Well, I don't want to be "that guy" living in a mansion filled with expensive toys--alone and depressed... The time has come for me to fix this situation..." ~~~As reflected upon by Luis Duarte

Romance, love, and heart wrenching drama are intricately woven into this exciting sequel to LIVING IN THE OFFBEAT. This contemporary romance novel focuses on the relationships that developed around the couple while they searched for that elusive place of joy that resides In The Offbeat.
