You would think that after the ending of forever (Shay & Rock), Shay would be done rowing on the love boat. When she ends up with Brice, her best friend from high school, she thinks that she's found her everything. Just as every relationship starts out: Brice courts her, treats her like a queen, etc, but a series of unfortunate events thereafter turns her world upside down and lands her right where she feels the need to be. But where? And with who? The only way to find out would be to read it and weep.
